COLOUR QUEST

GORGEOUS NEW WAYS TO BRIGHTEN YOUR OUTLOOK

5 CHANGING ROLES Glam Florence Broadhurst wallpaper – Japanese Floral in Silver – makes this office (above) “feminine without being girly”, says interior designer Carolyn Burns-McCrave, who was briefed to create an office that could double up as a guestroom. All office equipment is hidden in the sideboard, with built-in joinery for extra storage. Burns McCrave Design; 0425 801 130 or www.burnsmccrave.com.au.

6 KITCHEN NOOK Melbourne interior designer Janita McMahon carved out an office nook in a corner of her kitchen (above right). A nib wall at the end of a bank of cabinets proved the perfect place for a custom-designed cantilevered desk with sufficient storage for her computer, phone and essentials. Calamity Jane Interior Design; 0412 204 416 or www.calamityjane.com.au.

7 COUNTRY CALLING A soft white-and-cream palette amplifies the light levels of this home office (right). The joinery, painted Dulux Antique White (with a dash of black for depth of colour), is teamed with a Corian benchtop. The wall is painted Porter’s Paints Parchment.
